Understanding Knowledge Access Through Elmentor Circles

To structure access, engagement, and leadership within the community, we use a model called Elmentor Circles. These circles define different levels of participation and responsibility, arranged in clear layers:

Audience

External audience who engage with us from the outside

Guests

Occasional participants with limited access

Members

Group Advisory (GAs)

Leaders who support and guide members

Lead Group Advisory (LGAs)

Guide both the Group Advisory and members

Executives

Responsible for all levels, ensuring the overall direction and success of the community.

This model helps us structure engagement, learning, and decision-making in a clear and scalable way.

Our Activities

Engage in a variety of activities designed to enhance your skills, expand your network, and accelerate your career.
